The VASSP Professional Program Series is offering an all-day in-service for administrators responsible for writing or revising Student Handbooks and/or Student Codes of Conduct in our public schools. The lead presenter for this workshop will be Dr. Roger E. Jones, Director, VASSP Center for Educational Leadership at Lynchburg College, and co-author of The Legal Handbook for Virginia School Administrators. This year's participants will receive material that includes Virginia and federal regulations and law related to Student Handbooks and Codes of Conduct. This material includes the latest changes as a result of the 2009 Virginia General Assembly, legal memorandums, checklists, and policy considerations.

Here is a sampling of topics that will be covered at this year's workshop:

General Assembly 2009 Changes	Drug Testing
Cyber Bullying	Search & Seizure (including cell phones)
Acceptable Use Policies	Freedom of Speech (new cases)
